

OUT IN THE VALLEY PRESENT

"BAH HUMBUG - A QUEERKY CHRISTMAS CAROL"

BY

SUE FRUMIN

DIRECTED BY

HAYLEY CARTWRIGHT

In a mysterious dark and strange valley the chink of profit and scandal leads us to the money making mill of fierce business woman Annelise Scrooge. It is Christmas and the little valley own is shrouded in mud, mist and gloom. But things are about to change as, on Christmas Eve, Annelise is visited by three strange phantoms who will change her destiny forever.

Come with us, on this exotic journey into the past, present and future and meet the ghosts, the geese, a cat and the residents of this quirky town. With far from original songs filched from the internet and a cast of at least 15, playing no less than 35 characters do join us for a creepy, queer-ky, Christmas carol.

Driven by the dream team who brought you last years panto!

Doors open 7pm
Performance from 7.30

May include strobe and flashing lights

Poster design by India Bird.

Cast in order of appearance:

Ensemble - all cast

Knodel/Dumpling: Aime Godward

Annelise Scrooge: Sue Frumin

Grindle/ Marlene/ Turkey: Janet Griffiths

Worker/ hedgehog / Betty: Binx Birks

Barbara Scratchitt: Annie Wade

Ignacio: Sean Pert

Director: Hayley Cartwright

Charity worker/ Teacher/Campy/pig: Simon

Charity worker/Goosie: Amelia Benson

Sylvia/ Hedgehog: Clare Morrison

Pupil/ Campy / Christmas Fairy: Steve McKay

Pupil/ chicken/ horse: Sally McCabe

Glam Fezziwig/ Zack/ Carol Singer: Matt Parker

Sheep/ Sarah Yorkshire: Moy Cash

Billie: Lorraine Ashton

Jack: Gregor Olivia Hudson

Director: Hayley Cartwright

Written by: Sue Frumin

Technical Director, Visuals and Sound: Ben Nicholls

Choreography: Grace Jenkins and Hayley Cartwright

Costumes: Moy Cash and Clare Morrison

Props: Lorraine Ashton and Maria Lovejoy

Book and backstage crew: Steve Baines

With thanks to: Calderdale Council, Hebden Bridge Council, Hebden Bridge Little Theatre, Hebden Bridge Town Hall, St James Church, The Making Mill, India Bird, Calderdale Fantasy Choir and Orchestra. All our friends and families.